

TRN-K-FND KONFIG Fundamentals

This course teaches students to use all aspects of the KONFIG product, from document management to product data management and configuration management functions.

Approximate course length: 2 days

Who should attend:

- Application users
- Application administrators
- Application implementers
- Project managers

This course teaches students how to:

- Create and manage items with associated files and metadata
- Find and access data via folder browsing and searching
- Perform common item operations including checkout, checkin, view, and modify
- Create and manage product structures
- Use configuration management functions to process and control changes
- Perform structured workflow tasks

Prerequisites:

- Basic computer knowledge and familiarity with web browsers.
- If training is to be conducted at the customer site, customer must complete a Conditions for On-Site Training form.